Um yeah lol idk what to think about it though. I don't really think Chattydress is Venus/a hacker. I think they're just new and probably younger than most of us so I really think we should just try to help her and teach her the ways of this forum and the rules. Yeah ok she was asking for stars but hasn't a few new people here (idk) asked for stars? Anyways don't worry about it. I'm sure it's not going to happen....

Hey! This might help you a bit (if you're actually new) this was written by Fairydragon.

Hello, and welcome to the forums!

Here's a lot of the terms and abbreviations we use here!

-Thread A thread is a post that other people can respond to, like this one that you've made.

-Signature We call them sigs or a siggy for short. They're the things below our posts. We usually put our nicknames at the top, and a bit about ourselves, too. There's a 250 character limit, though, including spaces.

-Color fade A lot of people like to use color fade in their signatures. To do it, look up ' text color fader ' and then copy and paste it here. If that doesn't work, then copy and paste the HTML code (it might be harder to copy and paste if you're on mobile, though).

-Die When a thread dies, it means that nobody has responded to it in a long time.

-OCs A lot of people also have ' OCs ' which stands for ' Original Character ' or ' Own Character '. They're basically characters you make so you can roleplay with them, and you usually put a description of them like this:

Name:
Age:
Gender:
Appearance:
Personality:
Other:

-Bump, poke, boop and up These are just some things that we post to try to keep a thread from dying.

-WoF This stands for Wings of Fire.

-WoFMB This stands for Wings of Fire Message Board, another way to say 'forums'.

-SA Spirit Animals. It's another book series.

-SAMB Spirit Animals Message Board. A lot of forumers come from here, and we go back and forth a lot.

-Stars The star on the bottom right corner of a post. If someone stars a post, it means they like it. The total number of stars you have is written on the top right corner of the screen (if you're on mobile, press the three lines on the top left of the screen, it will be displayed there, instead). You can't unstar posts, though. Asking for people to star or not star something is called star farming, and it's against the rules.

-ForumFics A ForumFic is a story someone writes, with the forumers as the characters. There's a lot of them right now.

-Homethreads A homethread is a place where you can just dump random ideas and thoughts, or contact someone.

I hope you enjoy your time here in the forums, and if you have any questions, feel free to ask!
